POST OFFICE, CHARLESTON, S. C., July 6, 1867. After to-day the mails for Northeastern Railroad will close at 8 o'clock A.M., and to-day and afterwards they are expected to reach the Railroad "Station" at 2:30 o'clock P.M., and to be ready for delivery at this office at 3:30 o'clock P. M. STANLEY G. TROTT, P. M.

POSTOFFICE NOTICE .- An evening mail for Augusta and Savannah, and for distribution beyond those offices, will close daily at the Postoffice at half-past 6 o'clock.

THE City Treasurer will continue to receive the amounts due for City Taxes for 1867 until 1st Oc-

In another column of our paper it will be seen that Mr. J. B. OLNEY has on hand a large stock of lime, cement, plaster, hair, &c.

HATS, HATS, HATS, at C. H. JOHNSON'S, No. 269 King street, the fashionable chapeaurie, where the latest styles of masculine head co ering are most temptingly displayed.

traced, and two more silver goblets recovered. Only one piece is now missing. THE CATHOLIC CHUPCH in Augusta is to have a fine new organ, for which a contract has just been entered into with JARDINE, the famous New York organ builder. CHEAP ARTICLES .- We have frequently noticed in our Wilmington (N. C.) exchanges that articles of prime necessity are quoted as having been sold at prices much below our market rates. The article of hay we have noticed lately as having been sold from the wharf at 90c., while here it was $1.25 per hundred, and yesterday we observed that 60 tons red ash coal was disposed of at $6.50 per ton; price here, $9.50. Why this is so does not

THE LOST FOUND .- We mentioned, a few days ago, that an infant lost in the street in front of Dr. OGIER's residence was found and taken care of by the officers of the city government. Since then, thanks to the wide-awake effective search of our detectives, the parents of the child have also been found-they are from the rural parts-readopted the foundling, and left for their native haunts. Whether or not the reunion was a joyful one our reporter did not learn.

DEAF, DUME AND BLIND ASYLUM. - During a recent visit to Baleigh, N. C., (says the Wilmington Evening Star; it was our pleasure to visit this excellent institution, and, through the courtesy of of its accomplished principal, Mr. W. J. PALMER, we were conducted through its different departments. There are, at present eighty pupils, and applications have been made to fill the building to its utmost capacity. Its corps of teachers is unsurpassed by any institution of the kind, and Mr. PALMER has shown rare talent in selecting and recommending such for their several positions. We cannot forbear mentioning Mr. JOHN SIMPSON, the blind professor in music—such gen' is, such delicacy of touch, such display of soul, we have seldom seen in the most distinguished planist of BASE INGRATITUDE, -- An adopted daughter of a lady residing in Spring street, Mrs. Klose, (the girl only about fifteen years old), it has been ascertained, has been stealing from Mrs. K. at different times during the present month about $170, money laid by "in case of sickness" or other unforseen exigency. Mrs. Josephine Abbott, who resides in the vicinity, it appears, has incited her to this deed of turpitude. The girl invested her ill-gotten gains in the purchase of gew-gaws and finery, yelept dry goods-the greater part of which have been recovered. Mrs. ABBOTT shared in the possession of said dry goods. Officers MyEBS and DAVES had this case in hand, and arrested the guilty parties, who have since been turned over to a magistrate for prosecution.

BROAD STREET is in a fair way, we believe, of soon receiving a new carpet—pavement, we mean. The "rocks" that in other days we were wont to see in the bank vaults and brokers' safes along that Rialto, have taken wings unto themselves, and their only representatives are the boulders piled up outside, come there at O'Donnell's bidding. Mr. O'DONNELL is ready. He has the "rocks," and the sand that has so long been a grievons eyesore in the rear of the old postoffice has been carted to Broad street, ready to be used in the construction of the new pavement. The City Engineer, we are informed, has been engaged for several days, with compass, level, theodolite, sextant, quadrant, or other geometrical instruments, to get the proper slope. The railroad track, we presume, will have to be taken up and relaid; this, however, will be merely a temporary interruption, during which time the blue flag cars will have a monopoly of the travel.

THE CHARGE OF THE STREET BRIGADE.-The rus in urbe has always been a favorite theme with town poets and essayists; and yet by a singular incongruity, "grass growing in the streets" has ever been a by-word and a reproach to a city. Why there should be such an insuperable objection to have anything "green" in the city (save what is brought there from the country) we never could fully comprehend. Whether true or not we are unable to say; but we have been told that during the latter part of the late siege of Charles.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. during the latter part of the late siege of Charleston, and for some months after the evacuation, it was not an uncommon sight to see doves and partridges in our streets and in the "Burnt

But the city has been in process of reconstruction since then. This reproach is being removed, and, intent upon this laudable design, the street brigade is actively engaged in removing every blade of the cumbering verdure—making hay basis is the essential principle of sound rye, which is while the sup shines. We have the time will not while the sun shines. We hope the time will not be far distant when there will be no Burnt District in Charleston, and the streets be kept clean of grass, without the interposition of Gen. Mower's

SUMMERVILLE. - Few of our readers who have not lately been in Summerville have any idea of the growth and improvement of this little town during the past few years. It is altogether unlike its anti-former self; and the great secret of this steady and gratifying development has been the uniform salubrity of its climate. Summerville. long prior to the war, enjoyed considerable reputation as a resort for invalids, particularly such as suffered from tubercular diseases; its climate uniting the advantages of proximity to the sea. and good, wholesome country air, largely freighted with the aroma of our long-leaved native pine, considered specially beneficial to those afflicted with diseases of the respiratory organs. Situated on a "pine barren," it has always been exempt from malarious influences; a boon that can be claimed enclosing a small lock of hair, and giving place of birth for few localities in the low country. Thus we learn, that this year, when intermittent fever and stamped envelope addressed to yourselt, you will reand the kindred types of miasmatic disease have been prevalent through the length and breadth of the land, Summerville has not had a single case of it. The doctors threaten to emigrate.

The merchants and professional men of Charleston are gradually finding out the advantages of a residence in the country, so convenient to their place of business; and, from what we learn, we should think that even a larger number would avail themselves of these advantages if the accommodation train would be a little more accommodating-start later from the city and run faster. Summerville, we think, bids fair, ere many years, to become a favorite resort. As an except to in-* valids suffering from lung or heart disease, who have spent the winter in Florida or the West Indies, we know of no better locality anywhere in the South.

MOUNT PLEASANT .- On Sunday afternoon last the Rev. L. MULLER, of the German Lutheran Church in Hasel street, at the solicitation of the Gorman residents, preached at the Congregational Church in Mount Pleasant. The Germans attended en masse, and seemed much edified with the sermon of this eloquent Divine. This, if we are not mistaken, is the first time that divine service has been conducted in the German language in this ancient village.

ADVEBTISING .- The Scotch American Journa says : "The British people advertise far more extensively than careless observers on this side of the Atlantic have any notion of. It is a vulgar conception with many here, we know, that this is the great country for advertising; and yet those who have constant access to the leading home journals know how absurdly mistaken people are who entertain that idea. Take the London daily and weekly press-take Manchester, Liverpool, Glasgow, Dubin, Edinburg, and we venture to say for one advertiser in such cities as New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore, and even Chicago (which is the best advertised place on the Continent,) there are at least three advertisers in the British cities named. The Liverpool Post, the Manchester Examiner, the Edinburgh Scotsman, the Manchester Guardian, the Glasgow-Herald, show even a greater difference than this, taking population into account. New York itself is far behind St. Louis, Cincinnati, Chicago, Pitsburg and Buffalo in this respect.'

CANINE SAGACITY. - The Wilmington Evening Star tells the following pathetic tale: "Nearly a year since. Captain I. B. GRANGER, of this city, having purchased an infant dog, of a ferocious species, proceeded to trim his ears, a large pair of shears being used in performing the operation. The circumstance had been almost forgotten by the owner, but not so by the dog, as we will proceed to show. "A few days ago the Captain brought into his office, for 'Purp's' consideration, a large piece of beef, fresh from the market; and, wishing to divide it, the shears with which Purp's ears had been clipped were produced for that purpose. But no sooner had 'Purp's' eyes fallen on the terrible instrument of his former torture than he let fall his tail from that graceful curl in which he is wont to carry it, and started, at greyhound speed, for his home, in the neighborhood of 'Fifth and Orange.'

"This sagacious dog may be seen at any time about the banking house of Mr. James Dawson (or most anywhere else). He is a good teller, because THE PLATE stolen a few nights since from the he can 'tell' them shears whenever produced; but residence of Rev. A. Toomer Porter has been he don't like to have them drawn at sight. When von do that the instrument is prolested."

What is TARRANT'S EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT, and what are its effects? These are ques tions which the great American public has a right to factory reply. The preparation is a mild and gentle saline cathartic, alterative and tonie, and is most carefully prepared in the form of a snow white powder, containing all the wonderful medical properties of the farfamed Seltzer Springs of Germany.

Of its effects we would say that those who have tested the preparation are the best judges, and they declare over their own signatures that the preparation will promptly relieve indigestion. Regulate the flow of the bile. Cure every species of headsche. Tranquilize the nervous system. Befresh and invigorate the weak. Mitigate the pange of Rheumstism. Neutralize scid in the Stomach. Cleanse and tone the bowels. Assist the falling appetite. Cure the heartburn. If you are a sufferer give this Remedy one trial, and it will convince you of the above facts. TARRANT & CO., Sole Proprietors, New York.
